Executive Profiles:

JOHN REED: Executive Editor/Hollywood2You.tv

John Reed is a producer, engineer, sound designer, and video editor with a 20+ year career in the entertainment industry. Universal Pictures, Mattel Media & Toys, Disney, WWF, and Hasbro Toys are among his many clients. John Reed's project-related accomplishments in sound design and music editing include all toy merchandise for Universal related to the recent KING KONG film, innumerable Barbie products for Mattel Media, several motion-picture related merchandising tie-ins for Disney/Mattel Toys, and WWF products as well. His other work in entertainment includes editing/post production of video for private engagements with former U.S. President William Jefferson Clinton, Executive in Charge of Production for Universal Cops: a Steven Seagal documentary made for UNIA Films France, telecommunications consulting for James Cameron's Titanic, and foreign distribution agent for both Cannes Film Festival and AFM. In music, John Reed has composed, produced, or recorded music for various television commercials, corporate videos, audio books, and independent recording artists. He runs two music publishing companies of his own and is affiliated with both ASCAP and BMI.
